Hah!
Why !?
I can't win no matter how many times I try!
While you were still gulping down on your mother's milk I was already gaining experience and honing my skills as a duelist!
That's right! The "Evil Tempest Card Game" is a game series that has existed for over 10 years now...
Hey you! I've received reports from the neighbourhood about you! What are you doing with the kids!?
Ah, it's the police
What...? Can't you see we're dueling?
D-Duel?
And so the misunderstandings increased
Huuuh!?
A battle!

TLN: Takashi used the word "dyuetsu" (duel), but the policeman didn't understand so the other kid used the word "kettou" which can mean both duel and shoot-out. The policeman interpreted it as the latter. I tried to carry the joke in English but figured I'd explain the original anyway.
